<sup>1</sup> The presentence report in this matter identifies eight issues for the Court to decide. The government agrees with the presentence reports identification of each issue. However, the issues identified in the presentence report will be decided by the Court’s factual determination as to which checks defendant stole while serving as a postal employee (Issues 1 through 5 in the PSR). The Court’s factual determination as to that issue will determine the amount of intended loss, restitution, and whether specific entities should be classified as victims. (Issues 6 through 9 in the PSR).

presentence report and, therefore, the amount of loss, restitution, and number of victims
